HUBBY HIDES UNDER BED CUTS RIVAL

Suspicious Spouse Crawls Under Bed But Creeps Out With Brandished Knife

Henry Baker played detective upon his wife on last Sunday evening and captured a rival for his spouse with the aid of his trusty blade. Baker was living away from his wife, but was suffering the torments of jealousy and suspicion to such an extent that he kept watch upon his wife's actions and learned the fatal truth.

Hides Under Bed
Baker hid under the bed of his mate at 4243 Evans Ave. and awaited the arrival of the ill-fated lovers. He stayed there until the ardent love-making drove him into a frenzy. Crawling from his hiding place, Baker drew his knife, and Willie Harper, the paramour, received painful wounds in the stomach and face. Harper is in the County Hospital and Baker is in jail.

'PRESIDENT' OF AFRICA MAKES SPEECH IN NEW ORLEANS

NEW ORLEANS, June 23.—Marcus Garvey, provisional president of Africa, and editor of the New York Negro World, after obtaining a temporary injunction restraining police officials from interfering with the proposed meeting, addressed over 2,000 Negroes here tonight in Longshoremen's hall.

The meeting was scheduled to take place last night, but was disbanded by policemen because a permit to hold it had not been granted.

Garvey had unmercifully preached of New Orleans when he said opposed the holding of the meeting.

He characterized as ridiculous pretensions to social equality of the white and black races.

"This is a white man's country," he said. "He found it, he conquered it and we can't blame him because he wants to keep it."

He urged his hearers to go to Africa and establish a country of their own.

Garvey is said to receive a salary of $12,000 a year as a provisional president of Africa, and $10,000 annually for his services as head of the Universal Improvement Association.

A JUNE GRADUATE

Miss Dorothy Codoze

Miss Dorothy Codoze, 5329 Wabash Ave., was one of Chicago's June graduates. She finished with honors at the Hyde Park High School. It was in 1918 that she received her grammar school diploma from the Carter Practice. She began taking dancing lessons from Mrs. Hazel Thompson Davis six years ago and in 1918 her mother took her to Pavley Oukransky, the great Russian ballet dancing master, for instructions. Miss Codoze soon developed in one of the most artistic dancers in Chicago. For three years she has been a "headliner" in the Woman's Amateur Minstrel. This fall she will enter the University of Chicago and take a course at the Medill School of Journalism. Miss Codoze is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Art Codoze and is very popular with Chicago's society young people.

INSURANCE PEOPLE HAVE ASSETS OVER SIX BILLION

The secretary of labor, James J. Davis, announced today that a statistical summary of the finances and personnel of the principal colored insurance companies in the United States, compiled for the U. S. Department of Labor by Phil H. Brown, commissioner of conciliation, shows that there are twenty-five representative active companies, with home offices in thirteen states and the District of Columbia. The insurance sold by these companies covers life, health and accidents, principally. Of the twenty-five companies reporting, four home offices are in North Carolina, four in Georgia, two in Kentucky, two in Pennsylvania, two in Louisiana, two in Florida, two in Virginia, and one in the District of Columbia, Arkansas, Ohio, Illinois, Tennessee, Maryland and South Carolina.

Capitalization figures, which were readily available for only 14 of the 25 companies, total $1,256,000. The total assets of all the companies are $6,339,198.59. During the past fiscal year these companies paid insurance claims of colored policyholders and beneficiaries of the United States in a total amount of $3,072,189. The companies employed 6,575 colored persons, comprised of 527 clerical employees, 3,908 field agents, 1,523 medical examiners and 557 miscellaneous employees, to whom was paid a monthly amount of $259,728.10, either in salaries or commissions.

ASKS FOR MATCH IS GIVEN ROPE AND DEATH INSTEAD

Warren Lewis, a young boy of 18 years, went to the kitchen of a white woman and asked for a match to light a cigarette. She saw the man and screamed—it came to her mind that she would like to witness a lynching and she made outcry. The moment a white woman opens her mouth in this section and a black man is around—it's taken for granted that the "white angel" has been "attacked."

When she opened her mouth, that was enough for the "lynching party" to take place. Crackers took out after him with guns and rifles. The boy was soon overtaken. No time was given to have him appear in open court. They make you confess down here.

White Ministers Attend
Before he was hanged, they made him make a speech, advising all black people to stay in their place, bow to the white man and be "good workers." Warren was then tied to a tree and hanged. The white ministers of the town of Dacus, Texas, the physicians and leaders in white Sunday schools attended the hanging and returned home as jubilant as coming from a Methodist picnic.

Another Exodus North
No effort was made to apprehend the lynchers. The report is that expect to have another in the next month. In the meantime, many of the black are taking the trains north where they are wanted to work in the mills at Gary, Ind., and other sections.

BLACK RACE NOT INFERIOR SAYS PROF.

Prof. Delves Into To History To Prove Equality Of Races

The white race is not superior to others, declared Dr. A. A. Goldenweiser, anthropologist, last night, in an address delivered before the Thirteenth Annual Conference of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, in the Robert Treat School, Norfolk and Thirteenth Ave., Newark. Dr. Goldenweiser is a lecturer on anthropology at the New School for Social Research in New York City.

"The evidence of anatomy and neurology so far available does not indicate any appreciable superiority of the white race over the other races," he declared. "The psychological tests during the war to the contrary notwithstanding, the psychologist also fails to provide any definite data to support the contention of psychological inferiority of so-called primitive races, including the Negro, to the white."

History Explains
"In the domain of civilization it must, of course, be admitted that other races, with the possible exception of the Mongolian, have not produced civilizations in all respects comparable to our own, and even the Mongolian does not qualify when science and industry are taken into consideration. But an insight into the characteristics of the historic process makes it more than doubtful whether any but purely historical causes need be invoked to account for the differences in the civilizations between different peoples. It must, moreover, be remembered that in just those particulars in which white man is incomparably superior to primitive races he is also superior to the civilizations of the ancient world, such as those of Egypt, Greece and Rome."

Must Co-operate
"By far the most difficult aspect of the Negro problem refers to the Negro populations outside of Africa, primarily in the United States. There can be no question that complete legal emancipation is desirable, necessary, and will within the near future be attained. The social aspect, on the other hand, appears much more gloomy. Deep-rooted prejudice, supported by certain physical reactions and backed by historical tradition, cannot readily be dislodged. Here the work will be tedious, painful and prolonged. It will not be achieved without whole-hearted and self-sacrificing co-operation on the part of the white and the Negro alike. But if both groups assume their share of responsibility, their ultimate success in this domain also cannot be doubted."

"Black Sambo"
WORCHESTER, Eng., June 24.—A youth named Walter Brown entered a home here by way of the chimney to rob it. He was caught red-handed, but refused to give his name at first and was booked as "Black Sambo" because of the soot on him.

Tots Burn To Death

Dorothy, age 5; Marvin, 2, and Lawrence Goodman, 17 months old, were burned to death last week at 1710 Wesley St., Evanston, Ill., while their home was on fire.

The little children arose happily in the morning and played and sang and jumped around the kitchen awaiting their mother to feed them. The mother lighted the fire in the kitchen stove and went to the grocery, only a few steps away. The wall paper became ignited. Within a few minutes the room was on fire. The children screamed; this attracted neighbors, who made every possible effort to enter, but all the doors were locked. A fire alarm was sent in and by the time the firefighters arrived the house was in flames and the babies burned to death.

Too Fat

HAMPTON, Va.—Martha Dobbs, the biggest woman of three counties near here, is a problem on the hands of the authorities. She was arrested for violating prohibition laws, but she was so big that she could not go through the circuit court door. However, she was found guilty and fined $300 and sentenced to eight months imprisonment. Now the jailer of the Elizabeth City county jail is scratching his head, wondering how he can carry out the orders of the court without making alterations to the jail. Martha should worry!

PULLMAN PORTER BLOWS OUT BRAINS USED CURSE WORDS

Thomas Humphreys, 3206 Rhodes Ave., age 47, a Pullman porter, on last Sunday afternoon shot Dan Overstreet, age 21, same address. The shooting was fatal. Humphreys fired at Overstreet's head, and Overstreet's brains were scattered several feet from where he fell. It is said that the shooting grew out of Humphreys' reprimanding Overstreet for abusive language used around the house while the Pullman porter was on the road.

Overstreet struck Mrs. Humphreys on the face. This made a scar. Humphreys became enraged and drew a gun and fired point blank at Overstreet with a 32 rifle. Mr. Humphreys was badly cut about the head. The coroner's inquest was held at Earnest Williams' undertaking establishment, and the jury returned a verdict in 20 minutes. They recommended that Humphreys be tried before the grand jury for manslaughter. Mr. Overstreet had been married since June 10 and lived in this city three years. He came here from New Orleans, La.

NORFOLK, Va., June 14.—A spectacular play of the elements preceded the rainstorm that swept over this section early Friday afternoon.

RACE ENDS WITH MUNDY AS WINNER

Thousands Of Votes Cast For Candidates; Whip Gains Many New Readers

On Saturday night, June 24, the second of the Chicago Whip's automobile prize subscription contests ended in a great burst of speed and enthusiasm. Promptly at 10 o'clock the ballot box, which had been removed from the Lincoln State Bank to the Whip's offices, was opened and the judges in breathless silence began to count the votes. Thousands and thousands of new subscribers were added to the lists of the Chicago Whip's readers. In the wee hours of the night as the telephone bell buzzed and buzzed, breaking the monotony of the judges' task, it was announced that Prof. James A. Mundy had won the beautiful Paige touring car and that Mrs. J. C. Carroll, wife of Rev. J. C. Carroll of Olivet Baptist Church, had won the second prize of one hundred dollars.

Contestants Cheerful
The contestants who did not win the car were loud in their congratulations to Professor Mundy and were cheerfully willing to concede the spoils to the victor. Near to Mrs. Carroll came Mrs. Jonnie McPherson, who was a close competitor with the winner. Mrs. McPherson is the winner of the third prize of seventy-five dollars. The other prize-winning contestants were Mrs. Annie Williams, Mrs. Lulu Gordon, Mrs. E. T. Beck and Miss Lottie Gordon.

Management Thanks Public
When the scores were decided, the management of the Chicago Whip stated to the judges that the public was loyal to the Whip, and that they were deeply indebted to their many friends who gave their subscriptions to the contest, the only possible regret evinced by the publishers being that every candidate could not win the car. The great $3,000 contest thus ended, with everybody happy and Professor Mundy the proud possessor of a brand new Paige touring car.

Can't Hop Bells In Tulsa

TULSA, Okla., June 27.—Chief of Police Rees D. Moran announced on Wednesday night that all hotels in Tulsa will be given until the 10th of the month to discharge the bell boys of the race and replace them with white boys.

Too Much Familiarity

Those who do not comply with this order will be arrested and prosecuted.

Great Losses Hit "Back To Africa" Order Garvey Faces Jail

NEW YORK, June 27.—Recent investigations into the chaotic affairs of "Emperor" Marcus Garvey of the mysterious Black Star Line and "back to Africa" movement reveal that between $600,000 and $1,300,000 has been lost beyond recovery. These facts were brought out in court litigation preferred by one James D. Brooks in a suit for his back salary.

Garvey Says See His Secretary
When Robert L. Waring, attorney for Brooks, inquired how the Yarmouth, one of the three boats, had lost $300,000 on its first trip, as was claimed, and how the Maceo, now tied up in Cuba, lost $100,000, Garvey answered: "I have nothing to do with the records. You will have to see my secretary." The secretary was not in court.

Garvey Out of Jail on Bail
Garvey is out of custody on $25,000 bail, having been charged with using the mails to defraud the public. Officers of the organization declare that the sale of stock is held up pending the outcome of the court investigations. The Black Star Line is incorporated and is capitalized at $10,000,000. It is claimed that Garvey receives a fabulous salary, in addition to expenses and funds paid by subsidiary organizations.

STREET CAR MAN CUT ON STATE STREET

Jesse Gorman, 8556 South Green Street, a street car conductor on the State Street line, was shot and killed Monday evening at 5 o'clock by Morris Fuller, 2404 Wabash Avenue, following an altercation over payment of fare. After shooting Gorman, Fuller made his escape from the crowded car followed by passengers who witnessed the shooting, fleeing east on 29th Street and hiding in an alley back of St. James Catholic Church, where he was held at bay until officers arrived and took him into custody. Gorman being taken to Michael Reese Hospital, dying while on the way.

Stories Differ
The stories of those who viewed the shooting vary. Some assert that the conductor was abusive in his language and made a move as if to reach for a weapon, thus causing Fuller to think that he was going to be attacked. Others declare that Fuller was unduly sensitive and was making an attempt to evade payment of his fare. Others are of the opinion that Fuller's anger was aroused first by the fact that the car was started before those who were waiting could board the car, which practice seems to the rule of conductors while their cars are passing through the black belt.

NEW YORK.—Harry Cort, the youthful Broadway producer, who made a great financial and artistic success with "Shuffle Along," in which only Colored artists appear, has a light grand opera in preparation which is essentially a fantastic folk-tale of the American Negro of the South and of which the score, book and stage scenes are all the work of talented Colored actors and actresses.

Black Man Saved from Hanging
NEWPORT NEWS, Va., June 30.—Mack Tabb had a noose about his neck and was being hauled up a cypress limb by a crowd of white hoodlums when older men came to his rescue and turned him over to county authorities on a charge of assault to murder. It is stated that Henry B. James (white), a salesman accosted Tabb on the street and began abusing him without cause, and that Tabb was merely defending himself. James is in the hospital where a part of his skull was removed.
